

An esteemed member of the community, Mr. Marzullo served as a visiting professor at the Graduate School of Public Administration at California State University, San Bernardino, where he has lectured and led graduate seminars in Land Use Planning, Public Policy Analysis and Economic Development, and Local Development Finance. He also became a member of the Board of Directors and later the President of the Board for the Bethlehem House, a shelter and program for victims of domestic violence.

Mr. Speaker, for more than two decades, Emil Marzullo has served the people of San Bernardino County well in a variety of important capacities, and the county will benefit from his accomplishments for many generations to come. Please join me in thanking him for his dedicated public service, and wishing him well as he takes a well-deserved retirement.

TRIBUTE TO LARRY MCCOOL

HON. MARION BERRY

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. BERRY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to an outstanding citizen; I am proud to recognize Larry Allen McCool in the Congress. His recent death was a great loss to his community, his family, his state and this nation.

Larry McCool was born in Kosciusko, Mississippi. He earned an education degree and taught history in a Jackson, MS, high school. When he wasn't teaching, he traveled around the country buying and selling unusual antiques and collectibles. Mr. McCool ended his teaching career in the early 1970s to pursue his own dreams and opened a shop in Jackson where he realized his potential in appraising antiques.

A four-time president of the Mississippi Auctioneers Association and president of the National Auctioneer's Association (NAA), Mr. McCool was a self-taught auctioneer who became one of the industry's foremost authorities on the appraisal and sale of antiques, fine arts and antebellum real estate. He continually pushed NAA to improve educational programs, increase its membership and revenues, and, most importantly, widen the charities NAA supported.

Despite his drive and dedication to auctioneering, Mr. McCool will be most remembered for his passion for charity auctions. On the day of his passing, he had planned to conduct an auction for a children's cancer fund, one of the many charities for which he raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for more than 25 years. Mr. McCool was named honorary chairman for the Hinds County chapter of the American Cancer Society, worked for the American Heart Association and volunteered his time to numerous charitable groups over the years.

On behalf of Congress, I extend my deepest sympathies to Mr. McCool's family and gratitude for the countless hours he spent serving others. He leaves a legacy of accomplishment in the industry as well as inspiring memories for those who knew him.

HONORING THE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

HON. IKE SKELTON

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, let me take this means to honor the efforts of the Department of Missouri Veterans of Foreign Wars. In March 2003, this group launched the "Hidden Heroes" project to provide direct support to the families of deployed Missouri National Guardsmen and Reservists.

The "Hidden Heroes" program has made a real difference. In the first year of the program, families have been guests at dinners, banquets, and picnics. At the Christmas parties for the Air Force Reserve 442nd Whiteman Air Force Base and the Army National Guard 1139th MPs, hundreds of toys were provided to the children of those serving. The Department of Missouri Veterans of Foreign Wars has also provided concert and sporting event tickets to family members. The efforts have helped to lift the spirits of these families.

The "Hidden Heroes" program has also helped to provide these families with food and other household products. When National Guard and Reserve members are deployed, their family incomes often fall by fifty percent or more. The Armories across Missouri participating in this pantry program are alleviating some of the financial strain experienced by these families that have already given so much.

Mr. Speaker, the Department of Missouri Veterans of Foreign Wars have identified a need and are rallying resources to address it. I am sure my fellow Members will join me in thanking them for the service they continue to offer to this country.

INTRODUCTION OF THE SERVITUDE AND EMANCIPATION ARCHIVAL RESEARCH CLEARING HOUSE (SEARCH) ACT OF 2004

HON. ELIJAH E. CUMMINGS

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. CUMMINGS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to introduce the Servitude and Emancipation Archival Research Clearing House (SEARCH) Act of 2004, companion legislation to S. 1292 sponsored by Senator LANDRIEU. This bill would authorize the creation of a national database of servitude and emancipation records within the National Archives.

For most Americans, researching their genealogical history involves searching through municipal birth, death, and marriage records—most of which have been properly archived as public historical documents. However, African Americans in the United States face a unique challenge when conducting genealogical research.

Current records of emancipation and slavery are frequently inaccessible, poorly catalogued, and inadequately preserved from decay. Instead of looking up wills, land deeds, birth and death certificates, and other traditional genealogical research documents, African Americans must often try to identify the name of former slave owners, hoping that the owners kept records of pertinent information such as births and deaths.

Although some states and localities have undertaken efforts to collect these documents with varying degrees of success, there is no national effort to preserve these pieces of public and personal history or to make them readily and easily accessible to all Americans. While entities like Howard University and the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture Library have extensive African American archives, the SEARCH Act would create a centralized database for these historic records. This database would be administered by the Archivist of the United States as part of the National Archives.

Finally, the SEARCH Act would also authorize funding for States, colleges, and universities, to preserve, catalogue, as well as index servitude and emancipation records locally. It would make available up to $5 million for the National Historical Publications and Records Commission to establish and maintain the national database, as well as $5 million in grants for States and academic institutions to conserve local records of servitude and emancipation.

I believe that this legislation will be a very important step in resurrecting the rich history of African Americans and the vital role that they played in building America. I urge my colleagues to cosponsor the SEARCH Act as not only a means by which their constituents can trace their lineage, but also as a means by which we can preserve historically comprehensive and accurate information for generations to come.

IN MEMORY OF ELIEZER SCHWARTZ

HON. CAROLYN MCCARTHY

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Mr. Speaker, I rise in memory of Eliezer Schwartz, and in anticipation of the Elie Schwartz Memorial Baldwin Classic Basketball game being held in his honor on Sunday, April 11.

I never had the opportunity to meet Elie, but the number of relatives, friends, and community members who will attend the basketball game represent a testament to the special young man he was. The son of Rabbi Gershon Schwartz and Dr. Shuly Rubin Schwartz, Elie was raised with a strong, unequivocal connection to the Jewish community. From his involvement in United Synagogue Youth, to his dedication to Israel, to his education at Brandeis University, Elie was a favorite among both his peers and adults.

Ten years ago, Elie was the driving force behind the Baldwin Classic, a 3-on-3 basketball tournament that became an annual event. It is quite appropriate that this year's game, the first since Elie's passing in November, be held in his honor, and the proceeds benefit the newly established Eliezer Schwartz Memorial Scholarship Fund of the METNY Region of USY.

Mr. Speaker, the contributions Elie made to our community in his short lifetime will not be forgotten. I know this year's Baldwin Classic
